Look good | Feel confident

Suited for Work's approach builds confidence and
optimises the potential of women to achieve
self-sufficiency.

About Suited for Work

Suited for Work is a not for profit organisation staffed by trained volunteers. We primarily exist to support our clients return to the workforce and become economically self-sufficient.

We also support women who need to look good and feel confident in many situations eg attendance at funeral, visit to doctor, meeting the teacher.

Suited for Work* Sydney operates from Unit 3-4/13 Condor St, Burwood.

All our clients must be referred to Suited for Work by a job placement agency, a charitable institution or community organisation, a government agency, Adult Migrant Education Service (AMES) or other group prepared to act formally as a referral agency.

How Suited for Work can help you

LOOKING FOR EMPLOYMENT?

We can help by

- Providing a high quality outfit that is appropriate to you and to the position you are seeking.
- Offering a one on one styling session to ensure you look your best for the interview
- Offering support and advice as you work through the challenges of the employment process
- Providing several more outfits once you have got the job

NEED TO LOOK GOOD FOR AN IMPORTANT EVENT?

We can help by fitting you with a suitable outfit and, if appropriate, some tips on styling and looking your best. You may need to make a court appearance, attend a funeral, visit the doctor or have some other significant appointment and have nothing suitable to wear.
